KANSAS DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
EMPLOYEE PROPERTY DAMAGE OR LOSS CLAIM

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE

Claim for damage or loss to personal property belonging to employees may be paid by the Kansas Department of Transportation (1) if the damage or loss did not occur as a result of negligence of the employee; (2) the property damage or loss was incurred while the claimant was acting within the scope of his or her employment; (3) the personal property damage or loss was required by the employee to perform his or her job; and (4) KDOT did not provide comparable equipment for the employee's benefit. See SOM 3.2.6 for additional information.

Claims for damage to an Employee's eyeglasses shall be submitted to Workers Compensation on Form WC-00 in accordance with SOM 2.2.5.

Claims for loss, theft or damage of personal tools are subject to the requirements of SOM 1.9.11.

The acceptance by the employee of any payment made pursuant to this claim shall be final and conclusive and shall constitute a complete release of any and all existing and future claims for personal injury or property damage or loss against KDOT, the State of Kansas and any individual, employee or agent thereof arising from the stated event. This acceptance shall be binding on all heirs, successors, or assigns of the employee and the agency.
